Days to Go

Happy World Youth Skills Day!

For the past 10 years, 15 July has marked the celebration of World Youth Skills Day. Declared by the United Nations General Assembly, this day highlights the crucial importance of equipping young people with the skills they need for employment, decent work and entrepreneurship.

Aligned with these values, WorldSkills Lyon 2024 promotes excellence, innovation and inclusion to develop the skills of young professionals worldwide.

The Organizing Committee is delighted to celebrate this day and on this occasion to launch the first episode of the One School One Country (OSOC) mini-series dedicated to the WorldSkills cultural exchange programme, which promotes cultural exchanges between schools in the host city of the Competition and Competitors, and introduces students to the skills represented at the Competition.

"The future of humanity and our planet depends on young people. But it also depends on ensuring they have the skills to tackle today's challenges and shape a more peaceful tomorrow."

— António Guterres, Secretary General of the United Nations
